

Republicanism and the Telegraph.

Our neighbor of the Warren (R. I.) Telegraph, who has up at mast-head this fair-seeming and well-sounding motto, viz:—
"No party, pledge or discipline we own, But freely seek to follow truth alone," is an article on the Kansas question, or rather on the Providence Journal, indulges in a strain of flippant remark upon the "humbug" and "delusion" of Republicanism—which he perhaps, in the vain imagination of his own heart, supposes he has demonstrated. But our neighbor will not, we trust, be affronted with us, if we suggest to him our belief that in his efforts to "follow truth alone," in reference to this Kansas business, he has, perhaps unconsciously, run off after a very different customer. If he has not, as the liturgy hath it, "followed the devices and desires of his own heart," he has at least gone so far astray as to have utterly lost sight of that "truth" which alone, in reference to this matter, can be of any possible service.

And here we may be allowed to say that though the Providence Journal is a very good and able paper withal, and one that we always read with pleasure and advantage, yet we do by no means consider it an infallible guide; and on this Kansas question, in particular, we differ widely from the conclusions of its respected editor. He thinks the probabilities are quite decidedly in favor of Kansas coming into the Union as a Free State. To us the probabilities are strongly in the opposite direction. The danger that, after all that has been said and done and suffered, during the last three years, for the sake of freedom in that territory—the danger, we say, that Kansas will be ENSLAVED, is in our judgment great and pressing. If this danger shall be happily averted, and the freedom of that young State finally and fully secured, we shall feel as if a mountain weight were lifted from our heart.

But, it was not the Journal, but the Telegraph man, that we were about to deal with. Republicanism, it seems, appears to him only a "humbug" and a "delusion," and he contemplates, with an evident chuckle, the speedy dissolution of the party and a post-mortem examination of its remains! It is not among the least curious things in this world, to see how differently the same object is viewed by different minds. In our judgment, now, there is nothing more real and earnest than the principles which underlie and animate the Republican organization, as set forth in the Philadelphia platform of 1856—the great, self-evident principles of the Declaration of Independence and of the Constitution of the United States—the principles, it may be added, of obvious justice and humanity. Without these vitalizing and essential principles, Republicanism, we are free to admit, would be a very poor affair, little if any better than the Telegraph describes it. With them, it ought to be, and we trust will prove to be altogether impregnable.

And pray what does Republicanism ask, at the hands of Congress, the National Executive, and the American people? Any thing—unreasonable, unjust, or unpatriotic? We do not so understand it. Relative to the extension of Slavery, it asks precisely what Thomas Jefferson himself and his coadjutors asked in 1784, and again in 1787, viz. that Congress should, by special enactment, rigidly and forever exclude the baneful institution from new and free territory. Will the Telegraph venture to deny this, or to denounce this Jeffersonian ground as a "humbug" and "delusion?"

As to the supposed temporary nature of the Republican movement, our neighbor in Warren will doubtless have plenty of time to reconsider and amend his positions before its final dissolution will have been effected. Ah, Mr. Telegraph! the young and vigorous party which last fall, under the lead of the Pathfinder, swept every State in New England together with the great and noble commonwealths of New York and Ohio, and by far the larger portion of the Free West—that strong and manly party which, acting on a great and comprehensive ground of principle, carried no less than eleven of the sixteen free States, and cast more than One Million Three Hundred and Forty Thousand votes, for its Presidential candidate—is not likely to prove so transient an affair as some may imagine. It has a great mission to accomplish; and it will be apt to stand and flourish, when your Slavery-sustaining Shiam Democracy shall, at no distant day, be whelmed in the seething waters.

Aquidneck Hall was about half filled on Thursday evening, with a most intelligent audience (among whom we noticed several members of the Legislature), assembled to listen to a discourse from Hon. G. H. Calvert on "Moral Education." The lecture was replete with original thoughts, clothed in the most beautiful diction, and we trust our citizens will be favored with its repetition. Mr. C. is one of the most polished writers of the age, and his thoughts are given with a sincerity and frankness that commends them to every truth seeking and impartial mind.

IRON LIKE ARSENIC.

"Alumnus" in his article a few days ago, refers to us as a witty joker! and says,— "Arsenic is not a substance, whose effects are like Arsenic, but the same"; Sol Gill again—"chock full of science!" He would give iron as an antidote for Arsenic, because it is like it, "Similia Similibus curantur."—Well! Well! We always thought homopathy (particularly the little sugar plum part) was the funniest of all maddened science, but we utterly "knock under" to the new dispensation. Arsenic is principally used to poison rats, and Presidents, (according to the Providence Post) which Iron will not do. Iron is principally used as a Tonic, for the Plough, the Loom and the Anvil, not to mention the Printing Press and the bomb shell. Iron and Arsenic are alike! now don't dear Alumnus, whoever you are, spare us from the necessity of believing that. We have been taking Iron for our health and begin, already, to feel like swelling up a poisoned rat! We shan't dare to swing on an iron gate again, for fear of being "poisoned" by the dust from the rusty hinges. Why didn't you tell us before?—We've boiled our "mush" in an iron pot for forty years past, and never dreamed of its being like an arsenic pot. Horrors of horrors! The National Hotel disease is no longer a mystery, the Presidents lobster-salad was concocted in an iron dish, which was so like Arsenic that he liked to have died—he did.—(See Providence Post.)

Sages have said that there was nothing new under the sun, but as sure as a gun, here's something brand new, not older than the average of calves that are sold for veal, say—six days or so. Alumnus is a trump, and Solomon in all his glory wasn't arrayed in half his science.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY—MAY SESSION.

NEWPORT, THURSDAY, MAY 28.

Henry S. Peckham this morning resigned his place as Recording Clerk of the House, and Thomas S. Anthony was elected to fill the vacancy.

The House passed acts incorporating the Hope Iron Foundry and the Fire and Marine Insurance Company in Providence.

Memorials were received from a number of the military companies in the State, declaring in effect that the election of Major General Brown, at the last session of the General Assembly, was illegal and void, and asking that the Governor may be directed to issue orders to the several Brigadier Generals, to meet and nominate some person to take the office of Major General.

Mr. Clarke, of Providence, introduced an act in relation to personal liberty, differing altogether from the Massachusetts act, which was ordered to be printed.

Both Houses have adopted a resolution, that when the General Assembly adjourns on Friday, it will adjourn to meet again on the third Monday of January next.

Dr. Gouraud, in full court dress, appeared in the Senate chamber to day, and congratulated the new Governor upon his accession to office.

A resolution passed both Houses, authorizing the Governor to appoint a successor to Samuel Ames, who has resigned his place as counsel in the case in which the State is defendant, in the Supreme Court of the United States.

An act making an appropriation of twelve thousand dollars to build a new bridge over Pawtucket river, an act abolishing the September term of the Court of Common Pleas in the county of Providence, and an act amending the act in relation to the Police Court of the city of Providence, were passed in the House.

IN GRAND COMMITTEE.

The two houses joined in Grand Committee for the purpose of electing certain civil officers, Governor Dyer in the chair, and made choice of the following named persons for the offices to which their names are respectively affixed:

PUBLIC NOTARIES.

Newport County—Wm. G. Borden, Frederic A. Boomer, Joshua Coggeshall, Joseph M. Davis, John W. Davis, George W. Ellery, Stillman Cady, Samuel Dunn, Wm. Gilpin, Albert Coggeshall, Wm. Barker, Clark S. Manchester, Wm. D. Lake, Josiah S. Peckham, Wm. P. Sheffield, Charles C. Van Zandt, Lemuel B. Rose.

We publish the following memorial which was presented by Judge Perry, to the General Assembly yesterday. Judge Perry remarked that it was highly worthy of attention and consideration:

To the General Assembly of the State, of Rhode Island. As a citizen of the State entitled to equal protection of its laws with others, your memorialist would respectfully remind your honorable body, that the constitution of the United States ordains that "In suits of common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and also that the constitution of this State ordains that "the right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate." Of this important and inviolable right your memorialist has been deprived—not in a matter of twenty dollars merely—but he has been compelled by a court of your appointment to relinquish his farmworth more than 100,000 dollars for a consideration not exceeding one tenth of its value. This unjust and arbitrary proceeding has been executed by the Supreme Court of this State under cloak of what your memorialist believes to be a usurpation of authority by said Court totally at variance with the constitutional and legislative laws of Rhode Island, by which your memorialist has not only been deprived of the right of trial by jury, but also of a rehearing or right of appeal to any other tribunal than that of your honorable body, and forced to submit to the unjust decree under penalty of subjecting his family to destitution and suffering, and himself to imprisonment during the pleasure of his oppressors.

Your memorialist is aware that charges of so grave a character preferred against men occupying so high a station and emanating from so humble and individual as himself can obtain but little credence in the breasts of a single member of your honorable body unsupported by other testimony; but he confidently believes that if you can be induced to investigate them thoroughly that a state of things will be disclosed to your honorable body, in relation to the claim and exercise of unlimited equity powers by the said court that will not only arrest your attention but excite in no common degree the apprehension of a vast majority of the people of the State. If as it seems to be claimed the supreme court of R. Island is truly clothed with unlimited equity powers of which it is the sole judge, and if as is again claimed in the exercise of its powers it is not responsible or amenable to any power higher than itself, your memorialist is aware that he can expect no relief from the action of your honorable body. But he trusts and believes that the constitution and law of this State never intended to countenance or lend support to such a despotic institution, and further your memorialist is assured by those who were consulted in the framing of that instrument, that the 10th section of the 1st article defining the legislative power was introduced into the article for the express purpose of providing a means of redress in cases similar to that of your memorialist.

This section declares that "The General Assembly shall continue to exercise the powers they have heretofore exercised, unless prohibited by the Constitution. As an injured and oppressed citizen of this State I respectfully claim of your honorable body the benefit of this provision of its constitution. I respectfully claim that it was meant to place and continue a power in your hands for the benefit not of the particular members of your body alone but for the safety of every citizen of the State, and that the General Assembly has no constitutional right to divest itself of the trust thus conferred upon it. I most earnestly ask that your honorable body will proceed to investigate the case I propose to you for two reasons—first, to afford your memorialist if practicable a trial by jury as he believes is his constitutional and just right. Secondly in the event that no relief can be assured him individually, that steps may be taken by legislation to prevent such ramifying and complicated hardships and oppressions from occurring in future as your memorialist feels assured will be disclosed to you in the progress of the investigation. And your memorialist will ever pray, &c.

Yesterday morning a company of artillery under the command of Capt. Asher Eddy arrived at Fort Adams.

We are pleased to find that Captain Eddy who is a native of Newport, has been stationed at this post. His friends and relatives will be glad to learn of his return to the home of his youth. We are informed that Col. Mc Gruder has been ordered to the command of this station but has not yet arrived.

Our neighbor, Mr. HENRY TISDALE, has sent us in a bunch of very fine Havana Segars. How Mr. T. became acquainted with the present scarcity of these luxuries in our office at the present time is more than we can imagine, but be that as it may, he has evidently hit the nail on the head this time at any rate. We think we can tell a good segar, and if we have that faculty equal to our own conceit, we should not hesitate to pronounce these Extra—or diary.

Correspondence of the News.

NEW YORK May 27, 1857.

MR. EDITOR:—The furious opponents of the New Police act, with the great Mayor Fernando at their head, have been "set back" somewhat by a secured judicial decision against the ground they are trying to stand on. The constitutionality of the law was on Monday fully affirmed and demonstrated by two or three Judges of the Supreme Court in this city—Messrs. Peabody and Mitchell. Only a single hope now remains to the recalcitrant Mayor and his miscellaneous followers; and that is the hope of a favorable decision by the Court of Appeals the highest judicial authority of the State. If the Mayor should be disappointed in that quarter, I don't know but he will, in utter despair, go and jump off the dock, and I think it may be safely predicted that his locust hosts of Dutch and Irish policemen will drown their private griefs, as far as may be, in flowing potations of bad whiskey and lager-beer.

Bennett's Herald was out yesterday in another of its highly complimentary articles in regard to Newport and Saratoga—denouncing the "tavern-keepers" of both places, as individuals who "do not know their business—starving and overcharging their guests;" and the editor further proceeds to signalize his love of truth and decency by declaring that "no one will go to Newport or Saratoga except snobs and a few verdant people," as "the mass of their society (according to the same veracious authority,) is made up of gossamers, gamblers, and men who have grasped wealth by disreputable means." The people of Newport and Saratoga must feel highly flattered by such commendations, especially as the Herald's assertions, like dreams, "always go by contraries." To be serious, though, could not the utterer of such foul libels be made to smart, handsomely, in a court of justice? Few public slanderers, in my judgment, ever deserved it more richly.

Sugar and molasses have been for a year and a half excessively high; but, judging from the way they have been rushing into this port, for a few days past, one would think the price might afford to come down. During Friday, Saturday, and Sunday last, no less than 45 vessels arrived from the West India Islands laden with Sugar and Molasses, being an aggregate of 17,070 hhds of which 14,291 hhds, was sugar. The largest cargo was that of the Schr. A. G. Lane being 550 hhds.

The street Inspector, Mr. Morton, has made a detailed report to the Common Council on the wretched condition of the streets by which it appears that not above three wards of the whole twenty-two, are in any thing like a proper cleanly condition, such as they should unfailingly exhibit at the opening of the hot season. The other nineteen wards range through all the degrees of comparison, from "dirty and filthy," to "very bad" and "dangerously filthy" in the Inspectors report. I do not see how the authorities are now to avoid "knowing that it is high time to awake out of a sleep."

The number of itinerant street musicians at present in our city is unusually large. They are seen of both sexes, and all ages, and wandering through the streets discourse their music on every conceivable variety of instruments. Sometimes their musical efforts are repaid by a shower of sixpences, for although it is not always very sweet or attractive, yet they can but ill afford to scrimp the million gratuitously; and the charitably disposed find them grateful recipients of their stray pennies. Poor wandering vagrants, let us not banish them from our doors.

We are obliged to defer the republication of "Mansions rented thus far," on account of the unusual press of advertisements and reading matter to-day. We shall however republish it on Monday morning's issue. This we hope will be agreeable to those who are so impatient for its reappearance.

The United States government have just awarded a contract to George H. Norman, Esq. to erect Gas works at the U. S. Military Academy, West Point.

DEATH OF MRS. SARAH DEHON.—The venerable licet of the Rt. Rev. Theodore Dehon, D. D., deceased, formerly Bishop of this Diocese, died in this city, on Saturday evening last, after a protracted and painful illness, having attained the ripe age of sixty five. She was the daughter of the late Nathaniel Russell, one of the most eminent merchants of our city in the olden time.—She lived and died, at the fine ancestral residence corner of Meeting street and Prior's Alley. Her burial service was performed at 6 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, at St. Michael's Church, where repose the remains of her pious and distinguished husband—the Rev. Paul Trupier Kelly, Rector of the Church, officiating.—Charleston Courier, May 25.

Bishop Dehon was for many years Rector of Trinity Church in Newport.

CHERRY PECTORAL FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BANKHEAD, Mass., 20th Dec. 1855.
Dr. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say that your Cherry Pectoral is the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Indigestion, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Ginger Pectoral. It is constant in its use in my practice and in the family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. R. BENNETT, M.D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of U. S. N. Y., writes: "I have used your Cherry Pectoral many times, and I have found it to be the best remedy for the purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.
BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify that your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

H. H. CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., Monterey, Cal., writes, 31st Jan., 1856:
"I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors two weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally I used your Cherry Pectoral, and in a few days I was able to go out. It did more to relieve the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedy as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisis, and Bronchitis.
W. M. MACDONALD, Pa., Feb. 4, 1856.
SIR: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of Consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under the lungs for the longer of thirty last forty years.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

The success of Chemistry and Medicine have been the subject of much discussion, and the proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surpass excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purgative of the bowels and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart health and vigor to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, and best of all, they can be employed for children.
Being sugar-coated, they are free from any taste, and being entirely free from any risk of harm, they have been made which surpass belief were they not constantly by use of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints: Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache, Stomachic, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Function of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Disorders and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Gravel, and all the complaints arising from the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, and all the complaints arising from a disorder of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S Pills, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best and there is for them, and they should have it.

Swan & Co., are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify to the correctness of the same. The same is done in a strictly honorable manner.
They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co., are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received and filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme on ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to satisfy the buyer. Prizes vary from $10 to $50,000; every prize being drawn and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

[A] List of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intel-ligger, and New York Weekly Day Book.— Write your address plainly, and direct

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.
All communications strictly confidential.

LOTTERIES.—The well known Mary Land Consolidated Lotteries, of which R.
FRANCO & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by that state, who is sworn to superintend, and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing.
Another fact that the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day in the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1.00 to $20.— No tickets however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order.
The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertiary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over. Address

SCHROEDER'S Patent Refrigerator.—This Refrigerator is on an entirely new plan.— It preserves by forming a cold, dry current of air. It will keep beef without taint or mould seven days if not previously salted. In fact, it will keep fruits most liable to change in hot weather, weeks, as no mould or moisture can remain in the preserving chamber while the ice chamber is supplied. It will keep butter for any length of time fresh and hard. It will keep pure milk sweet for six days. Mould must moisture or impure air will not generate in the preserving chamber, neither can the flavour of one article be imparted to another.
It melts less ice than the ordinary ice-box pounds of ice will keep it as cold as temperature. The temperature inside when in operation will average from 38 to 48, while the outside of it may range even up to 90 or 95.

I have for sale at my ware rooms, Nos. 4 &

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS (Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857.) NO. 75 STATE, OPPOSITE KELBY ST., BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.— Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions.—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered there elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE successful AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has always reason to believe, and can provide that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patent granted in the United States and Europe. render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

A necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of procuring Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who connected it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
From the present Commissioner.
August 17th, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

SAMUEL COOPER, (late Chief Examiner in the United States Patent Office,) procures Patents in this and Foreign Countries.
References.—The undersigned Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, lately a Principal Examiner in this office; and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned ability in the business and practice of the Office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
